

Sue Stemp (1980-1985)

Sue Stemp was at Royal Russell during the early 80's and was in South House.

Below is an extract from Sue's website about Sue, the Fashion Designer, living in Los Angeles. It's good to be back in contact with Sue after over 20 years!

home
spring summer 2009
archived collections
about sue
press
contact register
sue's blog

From Burnham-on -Crouch, in Essex, England, Sue Stemp moved to London to study fashion, earning a First Class BA Honours degree in Fashion Design. After graduating she began her design career working for the innovative British fashion label Ghost. In 1995 her talent then brought her to New York where she worked with Daryl K. In 1998 she took the position of co- Head Designer of Tocca leading the brand to a successful re-invention.

Subsequently Sue began designing and selling her one-of-a-kind inimitable party and wedding dresses under her own name. During this time she also embarked on various freelance projects including design research in New York for Alexander McQueen where she worked on his Fall '05 collection " The Man Who Knew Too Much".

This all culminated in Sue launching her label with a debut full collection for Spring 2006 during New York fashion week in September 2005, and graced the cover of WWD.

Familiar in fashion circles in New York and London, Sue's distinct personal style reflects in her designs, bringing together relaxed, feminine silhouettes with sharp English tailoring and a flirty, modern, cool. Her clothes rely heavily

sue stemp