I INTRODUCTION by the CHAIRMAN

THE BALLARDS SCHOOL SONG

Words by F. A. V. Madden

Music by M. J. R. How

Happy the days that we spend here at Ballards,
How happy the hours amid all that is good,
The Cricket, the Hockey, the Soccer, the Tennis,
The Shooting, The Running, the Pool in the Wood,
The fields that we play in, the Chapel we pray in,
The words that inspire us to fight the good fight.
Not for self but for all, we must answer the call-
Saint Christopher guide us to travel aright!

'Tis Ballards that reared us
From childhood and steered us
To follow the pathway to Duty and Truth
What shall we sing to thee?
What shall we bring to thee?
Hearts that will cling to thee,
Home of our Youth!

Proudly Russellians thinking of Ballards,
Where'er they are scattered, look back on the days
Of disciplined freedom of mind and of body.
And offer the gratitude Loyalty pays.
It's not of their learning, or what they are earning.
It's not of the Games or the Work that they boast.
It's of something the School teaches wise one or fool
It's something called Spirit that matters the most!

'Tis Ballards inspires us
With spirit and fires us
With courage to battle
For Freedom and Truth.
This shall we sing to thee,
This shall we bring to thee,
Hearts that will cling to thee,
Home of our Youth!
